

HUSTING SCENTS A PLOT

Wisconsin Senator Says Members of Congress Have Been Deluged
With Thousands of Messages to Put an Embargo
on Arms Shipments.

"Government Should Follow Messages
to Poisonous Source," Is the Strong Language Used By Speaker.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, April 27. — Senator
Husting, Democrat, told the Senate
today that the American Embargo Conference had conducted a campaign in Wisconsin to induce him to support an embargo resolution against shipment of war munitions
to Europe.

He submitted a thousand letters from Wisconsin citizens, which he said all emanated from the Chicago
headquarters of this organization.

Senator Hustling said that thousands of telegrams deluging Congress charging the President with seeking war with Germany, emanated from the Embargo Conference.

He declared there was "a deep plot to poison the minds of citizens all over the country with the thought that the President wants war, when every fact gives the lie to such an assertion.

"I think the Government should follow these messages to their poisonous source," continued Senator Husting.

"It must be plain to everyone that if this war continues for a year or more, and if these instances continue,
there can be only one end."

Senator Hustling urged a congressional inquiry to determine exactly who is responsible for the propaganda.

HARD WORK LONDON SAYS

(Associated Press Cable)
London, April 27.—The most difficult problem of diplomacy which Germany has been called upon to solve since the war began is that presented by the American note on submarine warfare, says a semi-official telegram from Berlin.
The telegram says the answer to the American note will not be given before the end of the week.

The only means of transporting food and supplies to the troops in Mexico proved to be by motor truck. The army has a big fleet of fast and heavy automobiles plying daily between the base at Columbus, N. M., and the out-

Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, who

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN ALL IRELAND

Officials Believe Casement Insane—
Some See Grave
Danger in Conditions.

(Associated Press Cable)
London, April 27.—Martial law has been declared throughout all Ireland.

Sir Edward Casement, it is reported, has expressed belief that the uprising in Ireland would be a failure
on account of his capture.

His leadership, he said, was necessary to the success of the movement.

Several newspapers support the theory advanced by A. Conan Doyle
a year ago that Sir Roger is insane.

Viscount Middleton attacked the government in the House of Lords today for failing to take heed of warnings regarding activity of the Sinn Feiners.

The present position of Ireland, he asserted, was one of greatest danger.

lin.

Premier Asquith told the House
the Irish situation still presented some serious features today, and that there were indications of a spread of the movement to other parts of Ireland, especially in the west.

PITTSBURG IDLE ARMY NOW 28000

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Pittsburg, April 27.—It became known today that steps were taken
last night through the organization of the Employers' Association of Pittsburg, to try to make the district an open labor market and to handle all questions as they affect labor.

More than one hundred manufacturing and other concerns, including some of the largest in Western Pennsylvania, were represented at the meeting.

Fifteen hundred workers were added to the unemployed of the Westinghouse companies, today, when notices were posted at the Shadyside plant of the Westinghouse Electrical & Manufacturing Company saying the shops had been closed to prevent annoyances to employees.

This practically completes the tie-up of the various factories, where a proportion of workmen in each struck for an eight-hour day.

Agents from factories in other cities are busy among the strikers,
and numbers of them have already left the Turtle Creek Valley.

Strike leaders said the number of idle men and women had now reached 28,000.

"THEM PAPERS" STILL A PROBLEM

Washington, April 27.—John B.
Stanchfield conferred with Counsellor Polk of the State Department today, as counsel for Wolfe von Igel.
It was said the lawyer had not asked for or mentioned documents and papers taken from Von Igel by agents of the Department of Justice.

The papers still are in the possession of the State Department, none having been returned in response to the demand made by Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador.
The situation in regard to the papers was described at the State Department as unchanged.

WILL TRY VAN HORN

Boston, April 27.—Werner Horn, who attempted to destroy the international bridge at Vanceboro, Me., on February 2, 1915, must stand trial on a charge of illegal transportation of dynamite, the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals ordered today.

STARTED FOR THE MEETING

Secretary of War
Baker Instructs Generals Scott and Funston to Proceed
to Meeting Place.

Carranza's War
Chief Expected to Arrive in Juarez Tonight—Americans Leave San Antonio This Evening.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, April 27. — Secretary Baker today telegraphed Generals Scott and Funston to proceed from San Antonio to El Paso late today for the conference with General Obregon.

Officials expect General Obregon
will reach Juarez tonight.

General Scott and General Funston are expected to reach El Paso late today, and the first conference may be held tomorrow.

DISTURBING

By Associated Press Dispatch.
El Paso, Texas, April 27. — The conference between Generals Scott, Funston and Obregon will be held in El Paso, Juarez, or "this vicinity," according to the statement of army officials today.

This was confirmed by Mexican Consul Garcia, who said that General Obregon is coming to Juarez.

Disturbing reports were received here today from many points in northern and central Mexico regarding anti-American feeling on the part of the peons.

The most serious of these reports referred to towns in Durango, and especially to Durango City, where the Americans still living there have been repeatedly warned by United States Consul Coen to leave.

As far as can be learned here,
there are not more than a dozen
Americans still in Durango City.

The present trouble seems to be due in part to the persistent anti-American campaign which has been carried on by the Mexican papers in the state capital.

This campaign has increased in violence since the clash at Parral between United States soldiers and Carranza troops.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Youngstown, O., April 27. — The Mahoning Valley, with its hundreds of industrial plants employing 100,- 000 hands, is seething with unrest
among its workmen, and fears were expressed by mill owners and union leaders alike today that May 1 would bring a labor crisis in the district greater than was ever known before and might be followed by numerous strikes.

RENEWING ATTACKS

German Big Guns
Keep Up an Unceasing Fire on French Lines Preparing for New Infantry Movements.

London, April 27.—There are signs of increasing activity along virtually the entire battle front in the west, notably on the southern end of the line down to the Vosges.

The great struggle at Verdun is being continued with little diminiution in vigor, however, with the German guns almost continually in play.

The only infantry movement in the Verdun region noted in this afternoon's Paris statement was to the north of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun, where what is alluded to
as "a small attack" was stopped immediately by the French artillery.

In Lorraine, the Germans are feeling out the French position.

Dispersal of a reconnoitering party which attempted to reach the French lines east of Lemesnil is reported by Paris; while north of the Aisne, German patrols were driven back with hand grenades.

Two Russian hydro-aeroplanes are reported from Athens to have raided Constantinople.

differences with its 24,000 bituminous coal workers on strike to enforce a demand for a five per cent increase President John P. White of the Uni-

"PAN, ON A SUMMER DAY" HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, EIGHT O'CLOCK

From the first glint of dawn, to the rising of the full moon of a summer night.

Pan Is Nature in Sound.

The "cheeping" of the birds, the "pit-pit" of the summer shower, the humming of the bees, the roar of the storm, the crackling of thunder, the wail of the wind, the chirp of the crickets, and the mysterious murmurs of the night.

SYNOPSIS.

On this summer day Pan plays his pipes as the world awakes, now humming softly, now with bird-calls.

The "Sunbeams" steal over the hills to draw up the "Dew-drops," (the "diamonds" which "Night" has dropped) resting on the downy pillows of "Gossamer Webs," which are "little bits" of Night's trailing garments, torn off as she fled.

A "summer shower" ends abruptly.

At noon, Pan, in the reeds by the river, hails the world to sleep with the "song of the bees."

In the afternoon, during a "Great Storm," Pan flies from the "Wind" and the "Rain."

After the storm, returning through the forest, Pan laments over a "mighty oak-tree, fallen."

Views of Others

Washington C. H. O.

April 25, 1916

The Fayette Co. Branch of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, convened in response to previous announcement at 2 p. m. in the Probate Judge's office, about 30 interested and enthusiastic members from different parts of the county being present, some of our heaviest tax-payers included in the number, which may speak silently, but rather powerfully. The sentiment is forming rapidly, for the construction, improvement, maintaining and repair of our public roads, some very practical suggestions are already crystallizing. There does not seem to be any selfish disposition on the part of any member to secure for his particular locality any exceptional favors. All realize the great need of a general improvement of the conditions of our county and township roads. A mutual interest seems very much in evidence. Our County Commissioners are one with us and invite the co-operation of suggestions or effort, that will lead to the most practical, efficient and economical construction of roads that it is possible to get in our county. And not only the County Commissioners, but the City Council of which we are proud to mention is willing to meet the proposed improvements at the various terminals. It does not stop there. Representative citizens of adjoining counties have caught the inspiration and are looking hopefully towards our city of seeing in the not distant future, the direct lines of communication put in the best possible condition that they may show us their appreciation of our efforts by transacting enlarged business with our various enterprises, having already proposed to meet us at the county line in some instances. All of which goes to show, that the country is awakening to the great need (for business as well as pleasure, to say nothing of the general enhancement of values that are sure to follow,) of a system of road building throughout the country, that means of transportation for the varied commercial interests may be had at the least expense of time and labor; for both are important factors, in summing up the net gain to the producer, the less of both, the cheaper the article to the consumer, hence good roads conserves the consumer as well as the producer.

This organization is a branch of the Ohio Good Roads Federation of Columbus, Ohio, and stands for any practical and conservatively economic

Yours for good roads,

J. E. Mark.

There is considerable talk just now about raising a subscription fund to build a 6-foot cement walk from the cement bridge near the B. & O. depot to the Hagerty Shoe factory in Millwood, and asking the City Council to make up what may be necessary to complete the project.

It is a well known fact that many girls have refused to work in the factories because they are compelled to tramp through the mud or dust from the main part of the city to the Millwood factory section. The inability of our factories to secure the necessary labor has caused them to establish branch factories in other cities, thus taking away from Washington C. H. much needed payrolls that might be retained here.

The 1100 or 1200 feet between the cement bridge and the Millwood factories could be provided with a 6-foot wide cement pavement on the east side of the street, opposite the Willis Saw Mills, for perhaps $1200 to $1300. Some filling would be necessary.

The people of Millwood who are good customers of the business houses located in the main part of town, are also deserving of some consideration by our citizens.

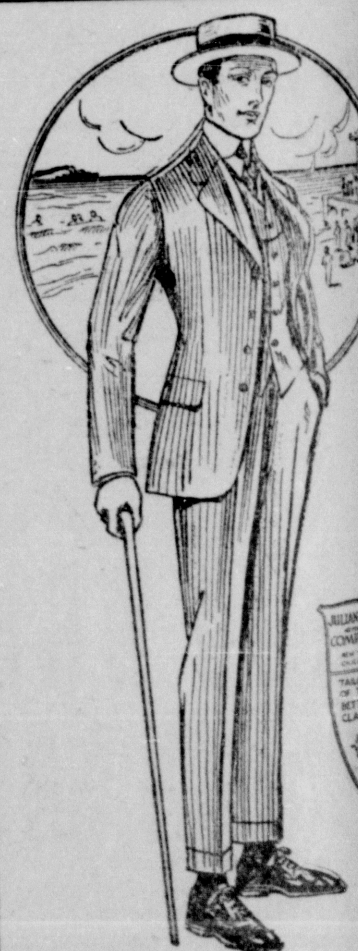

Such a walk as the one proposed would materially benefit Millwood real estate values and make Mill-

wood a much more desirable locality in which to live.

Such improvements as this really worth while and are permanent benefits alike to the community and financial worth of our people and the city.

Hitchcock and Dalbey, the estate men, have been looking the project and report a strong sentiment in favor of the construction of the proposed pavement. INTERESTED CITIZENS

The Tuesday Primary

Tuesday's primary election demonstrated that Ohio's present primary plan is badly in need of a general remodeling. The meagre vote cast in the state generally, outside of some of the larger cities where special issues served to lure the voter from his home to the polling place, is proof that the people are not inclined to avail themselves of the "priceless privilege" which the primary laws give them.

The consensus of opinion seems to be that there are entirely too many primary elections given to the voters. If all the primary elections could be grouped and held on one day, if all preliminary party voting could be done at one time, the weight of opinion seems to be, there would be a marked increase in interest and voting.

As Tuesday's election story tells it there was something like a half million dollars of the people's money spent for about two hundred thousand votes. Roughly speaking, every vote cast cost the people about two dollars and a half to get in the ballot box, counted and recorded.

As to state wide results the most prominent features are the fact that Governor Willis and Senator Pomerene were decidedly behind in the balloting, indicating that, in their respective parties, there is a decided opposition among the voters. While Senator Harding led all delegate candidates in his party primary, Senator Pomerene ran last among his party delegates. Governor Willis did not receive quite such a set back at the hands of his party voters as did Senator Pomerene but the vote he received was a poor second to that of Senator Harding.

The Roads Federation

The Fayette County Good Roads Federation is going along with its work in a methodical, business like, yet determined way, which gives promise of real results.

Several matters of importance were taken up and dealt with in an understanding and understandable manner at the Tuesday meeting. Among the most important are the several "out links" connecting the good streets of the city with the good road sections of the county which begin at a distance of a few miles from the city.

The federation seems to be going along deliberately and not undertaking to map out a program of work so enormous as to be impossible of performance and interfering with the work of the duly constituted authorities.

The federation is also showing excellent good judgment in its very evident determination to co-operate with all other available working forces in the county rather than in antagonism to or so independent of those forces as to bring about confusion and disorder so fatal to accomplishment.

One thing evidently lacking is the co-operation of local business men. Washington business men should not fail to realize that good roads are as important to them as they are to the rural residents. It is not the voting of money that counts so much as the real actual intelligent work. Everybody should get in this game. Nobody can afford to stay out of it.

It makes little difference now who organized the federation. The main point is, it seems to be in excellent hands locally and in a fair way to do a world of good.

It is the first nucleus of a real working force without which nothing much can be accomplished.

The Horse Show

The horse show and horse sale for nineteen sixteen is now one of the events of the past.

Again the men who make these annual events possible in Washington are entitled to the thanks of the people of the community and of horse lovers and horse buyers all over this section of the country.

These events bring a throng of visitors to the city, visitors who observe and appreciate, visitors who travel a great deal and meet a great many people. It is worth something to the community to have the good will and the good opinion of the folks who come to Washington each year to see and to buy.

Fayette county is known now far and wide as the home of good horses—the Lexington of Ohio. Even men who are not directly interested in horses hear of Washington and remember what the enthusiastic friends we have made say about us and, unconsciously to men even in other lines of business, Washington and Fayette county slips into the mental file case for ready reference any time necessity or desire demands the name of a real live, good city and county.

In short the horse show and horse sale has helped to put the city and county very decidedly on the map.

On the other hand, these events have provided a Mecca for those who love horses and for those who deal in horses, to which they may make their annual pilgrimage.

Yes, the horse show and sale are a good thing for visitors and the community. Success to them.

GASOLINE.

I've had in mind to write a song
Of praise to gasoline
To laud its worth throughout the earth
How useful it has been!
But Oh, I should have sung my song
At that departed time
When joy was high and I could buy
A gallon for a dime.

I could have sung its praises then,
Sincerely, had I tried,
Its labors fine, in many a line
I could have glorified.
I should have hailed that precious stuff
In deathless verse and rhyme
When I could get (Oh vain regret!)
A gallon for a dime.

Were I to sing of gasoline
Considering its rate
I fear today, my epic lay

Official Declaration Made By This Government.

Conditions Under Which Submarines May Attack Merchantmen Are Set Forth—Orders From Belligerent Government to Conduct Aggressive Operations Would Stamp Merchant Vessel as Warship.

Washington, April 27.—By direction of President Wilson, the attitude of the United States toward armed merchantmen in neutral ports and on the high seas is defined in a statement which has just been made public.

The statement was originally intended as a circular note to the other powers and is dated March 25, 1916.

The feature of the statement is its direct bearing on the submarine issue with Germany. It takes the position that a belligerent is not justified in presuming that an armed merchantmen encountered on the high seas is of a warlike character until conclusive evidence has shown it to be. The presence of armament on the ship is not considered enough and in absence of conclusive evidence to the contrary, the belligerent, the United States contends, must act on the assumption that the armed merchantman is of a peaceful character. Only one means is open to a belligerent to conclusively prove the warlike character of an armed merchantman, that is by visit and search.

The statement reiterates the contention of the United States that an armed merchantman exercise its right of self-protection, either by flight or by resistance. "The right to capture and the right to prevent capture are recognized as equally justifiable."

But the statement points out that warships under international law must give merchant ships an opportunity to surrender or to submit to visit and search before attempting to seize them by force. If the merchantman flees or resists the warship may exercise force to compel surrender.

A feature of the statement is the fact that the United States takes the position that an armed merchantman of belligerent nationality loses its status as a peaceable merchant ship if the captain is under orders to resist capture under all circumstances. Secretary of State Lansing takes the view that they deprive the captain of his discretionary power to resist or surrender, and thereby change the status of the ship. Americans are warned that they travel on vessels "possessing a status tainted with a hostile purpose" at their own risk, and that they may not expect immunity other than that accorded persons who are on board a warship.

In view of the German charge that British armed merchantmen are under admiralty orders to resist capture in all circumstances, the position defined by the United States in this respect is regarded as particularly important. Secretary Lansing has made inquiry of the British government whether the admiralty orders make a resistance compulsory. The inquiry to Great Britain was sent about ten days ago. No reply has yet been received.

THE FIGHT

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., April 27.—News of two battles between American troops and Villa bandits in Mexico reached the border in official advices from General John J. Pershing, commanding the American forces.

One dispatch gave the brief details of an engagement on April 20 between American forces under Colonel Erwin, Seventh cavalry, and a band of Villistas at Cocomarachio, near Guerrero. Four Mexicans were wounded and captured in this battle, the rest of the band escaping.

The other message told of Colonel George A. Dodd and his American cavalry detachment meeting and defeating a band of 260 Villistas in the mountains of western Chihuahua on April 22. The Americans killed six and wounded nineteen of the band, losing in return two men killed and three wounded. As Villa himself has recently been reported alive in western Chihuahua, south of Temohc, there is an inclination to believe that he may have been in the vicinity of the band.

SHOOTING TO KILL CHARGE FILED TODAY

Addie Bay-Jones to Face Charge Which Will Probably Land Her in Ohio Penitentiary or State Reformatory.

An indictment charging Addie Bay Jones with shooting with intent to kill Harry (Monk) Sammons on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 25th, was filed before Mayor Oster, Thursday morning, by Chief of Police D. L. Moore, and it was expected that the woman would be given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Oster late Thursday afternoon.

Should Sammons die of the wounds inflicted by the woman, a charge of manslaughter will be placed against her, but conviction upon either charge means a term in state prison, either the penitentiary or state reformatory.

The woman will be held to the grand jury, probably without bond, and the grand jury will take up the charge against her when that body of investigators assembles for duty Monday morning of next week.

Sammons's condition is none too hopeful, and the physicians regard his chances of recovery or death as about equally divided, the rusty gun and verdigris covered ball forming a dangerous combination as a blood poison producer.

It is expected that within the next few days, before the grand jury meets, it will be known for a certainty whether the man will recover. At the present time Sammons is very restless and suffers greatly. The ball has not been located.

Pleads Not Guilty.

At 3:40 Thursday afternoon the woman was arraigned, waived the reading of the affidavit and entered a plea of not guilty. Her bond was fixed at $500, and was remanded back to jail to await action of the grand jury. She was represented by Lee Rankin.

BONDING COMPANY AT WORK ON JEFF. PIKE

The Illinois Surety Company is endeavoring to complete the Jeffersonville pike improvement, which was attempted by Parrish & Bales last fall and who could not swing the contract and were forced to abandon the project.

The bonding company so far has made decidedly slow progress, and the equipment so far has been insufficient to make the progress that

travelers over the road expect, it is claimed.

Much of the old curbing must be removed and new curb constructed, and in some instances where the curb built by Parrish & Bales would otherwise do for the job, it is said to be out of line as much as four inches, so that most of the curbing will be removed entirely.

The road is closed at the present time, and it is understood the commissioners will keep an eye on the progress made with a view to not allowing it to drag along.

LAYING FOUNDATION FOR ASPHALT PAVING

The Andrews Asphalt Company, who have the contract for paving Hinde street, is now engaged in laying the concrete base for the new paving, and has a large part of the foundation constructed.

If the weather permits the entire foundation will be finished this week, and as soon as it becomes solid and "cured" the sand and asphalt will be applied. It is expected that traffic will be passing over the street within the next three weeks.

On South Main street the work of excavating has not been completed and the curb has not yet been reset. It is expected that the street will be ready for the concrete foundation next week.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club celebrated the three hundredth anniversary of Shakespeare's birth at the First Baptist church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, vice-president, welcomed, in her usual graceful way, the visiting clubs invited to join in the tribute to the noted bard. She then introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Geoffrey Morgan, graduate in English of Leland Stanford University and head of the department of Education of Ohio University, Athens.

Prof. Morgan, always an intensely interesting speaker, took up Mrs. Carpenter's reference to the recently agitated "Bacon Theory" and briefly, but convincingly, refuted the chief arguments of the "Pro-Baconites."

Two of his strongest arguments were that the writings which bear Bacon's own signature do not come up to the standard of Shakespeare and that it would be an absolute impossibility for one man to have written the voluminous compositions which have been published by both of these writers.

The speaker then spoke of the universality of Shakespeare's genius—his gifts in presenting humor, heroism, and tragedy and, above all, his poetic power.

Prof. Morgan presented scenes from "Twelfth Night," "Mid Summer Night's Dream," "Henry the Fifth," "Romeo and Juliet," "King Lear" and Hamlet, conclusively proving to readers his wonderful grasp of Shakespearean literature and illustrating in a most entertaining way the qualities which he ascribed to the great "Literary Alchemist."

The progressiveness of the Browning Club was emphatically demonstrated anew in the presentation of a program of such literary merit at a time when the subject is of dominant interest.

This is the second entertainment of this character presented during this club year, under the presidency of Mrs. P. J. Henness.

The Leap Year Dance given by the Pythian Sisters for charity Wednesday night proved a decided success, providing an evening of the utmost pleasure and gaiety and reflecting credit galore upon the order as able entertainers.

Fifty two couples formed in a pretty grand march, in which many dainty evening gown shimmered with rainbow tints. Miss Emma Wilson and Mr. Elden Evans led the march.

The music furnished by Horstman, Kneisley and Miller, was exceptionally fine and encored repeatedly.

Supper was served at eleven o'clock; the tables extremely pretty in decorations of white and green

and candles burning brightly in crystal tapers.

The Leap Year features added to the enjoyment of the dance.

Visitors attended from Mt. Sterling, Chillicothe, Jeffersonville and Sabina.

Relatives and friends in this city have received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Irma Jeanette Bingenheimer to Mr. Lawrence Waldo Ustick, on Tuesday, the twenty-fifth of April, one thousand, nine hundred and sixteen, Niagara Falls, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ustick will be at home after the 1st of June at three hundred and sixty Crescent Avenue, Buffalo, New York.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and has been for some years with the Rogers and Brown Steel and Iron Co., Buffalo, New York.

The Presbyterian Guild Kensington of Wednesday afternoon proved a delightful affair at the home of Mrs. David H. Barchet. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames John A. Paul, Albert McCoy, D. H. C. Bowmen, Mary Millikan, Frank A. Chaffin, W. B. Chandler.

Mrs. Barchet's son, Ira, added to the pleasure of the afternoon in well played piano numbers.

Easter lilies and sweet peas were tastefully used in decoration and dainty refreshments served.

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins is entertaining today the members of the financial committee of the Chillicothe Presbyterial, Miss Anna Welsh, treasurer, Mrs. Shields, president, of Hillsboro; Miss Winifred Caldwell, S. Solon; Miss Dorothy Steele, Chillicothe; Mrs. A. S. Kaye, retiring president, of Frankfort. Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton, retiring secretary, was also a luncheon guest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Cline gave a delightful little dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Shank and son Robert, who are leaving the first of the week for their new home in Dayton. The additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jared Adams, Miss Mary Cline and little Elizabeth Cline.

Jonquils and greenery formed pretty decorations.

Fifteen girls of Miss Cecil Reeder's Sunday school class greatly enjoyed a picnic supper in the basement dining room of Grace M. E. church, Wednesday night.

It was the regular monthly social session and besides the good time quite an amount of business was transacted.

GOOD MOVE

(By American Press)

Chicago, April 27.—Representatives
of railroads in the United States and
the chief executives of each of the
four brotherhoods of railway employes which are threatening a general strike, met today in a preliminary conference in the offices of the General Managers' association here to arrange for conferences between the employes' committee and a conference committee of the railroads.

The ultimatum of the employes demanding a written reply to the revision of the schedules handed the railroads several weeks ago expires Saturday. However, it is stated by officials of the General Managers' association that practically every railway
in the country has already replied to

MRS. ROGERS INSANE

New York, April 27.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers, charged with the murder of her two children, brought in a verdict of not guilty, on the grounds of insanity.
Her defense was that she was temporarily insane, because Lorlys Elton
Rogers, the father of the children,
had not divorced the woman then his wife. Rogers has since been divorced
and has married the defendant.

ANOTHER PUNCTURE

Washington, April 27.—Numerous
reports connecting Senator Harding's
name with the presidential nomination drew from the senator a statement swatting his boom as hard as
any man could. He says there is
"nothing to it," and that his real
friends know he would not wish to be considered in that connection even if

SUBS SEEN IN VICINITY OF IRELAND

Troop Transports.

SUPPORTING THE REVOLT

Violent Fighting Continues in Dublin,
According to Secret Code Cabi-
gram Received in New York.
Greater Part of the City Reported
Held by the Rebels—Another Zeppelín Raid On English Coast.

Amsterdam, April 27. German submarines, whose sole task is to destroy every troop transport destined
for Ireland to quell the Dublin revolt,
are reported to be patrolling the Irish sea and the Atlantic waters to the west and south of Ireland.

It became known here that the visit
which Sir Roger Casement paid to the Irish coast on the night of April 21, and which resulted in his arrest
by the British, and the sinking of the German auxiliary with which he had come, was not the first visit the famous Irish nobleman paid to his native
shore since he has been in Germany.
Despite the fact that there was a
price of $25,000 on his head, Sir
Roger, it is reported, had previously
made several daring trips to the Irish
coast, all of which were successful.

A prominent Scandinavian who has
just returned from Berlin, where he
has close commercial and literary connections, says that, in spite of
their aggressive language, most of the German newspapers and a considerable number of the leading politicians
are convinced that Germany will not
go so far as to permit a diplomatic rupture with America. They declare
that the Kaiser will make a great effort to prevent a break. German public opinion, which at the beginning
was furious against America, is said
to have become considerably calmer,
and no more warlike talk is heard on

TROOPS CONTROL

(By American Press)

London, April 27.—British regulars
from Belfast and England are now in Dublin and have captured from the revolutionary faction several important centers which the members of the Sinn Féin party and their adherents
had occupied. These include St.
Stephen's Green and Liberty hall.
The number of insurgents killed is placed at 11.

NOT IN HAND

(By American Press)

New York, April 27.—A secret code
cablegram just received here by circles sympathizing with the Sinn Féin,
the organization which is leading the
rebellion in Dublin, makes the following assertion: "Violent fighting continues in Dublin. The greater part of the city is firmly held by the rebels."

Another cipher message repeated
the statements made Tuesday that Lord Wimborne, lord lieutenant of Ireland; his under-secretary, Mr.
Nathan, General Friend, commander

in chief of the British troops in Ireland, and his whole staff, as well as several hundred British soldiers, are
prisoners in the hands of the rebels.
They are held, it is stated, as hostages for Sir Roger Casement. The
same message declares that uprising
have broken out in other parts of Ireland and is spreading through all the
four provinces.

PARALYZED

(By American Press)

Pittsburgh, April 27.—With approximately 30,000 employes on a strike,
every Westinghouse plant located in
the Turtle Creek valley was closed
down for an indefinite period. Clashes
between the strikers and the guards
were frequent in the strike zone. In many instances guards were attacked,
but no serious injuries resulted.

The list of persons now on strike
throughout the Pittsburgh district approaches 120,000. Of this number 54,
000 are employes of the allied Westinghouse interests and the Pittsburgh
Coal company. The remainder are scattered among industrial plants in Allegheny county.

PRIMARY ECHOES

Returns Change Relative Positions of Several Candidates.

Columbus, April 27.—Late returns
of the presidential primaries served
to change the early returns only in so
far as the relative positions of several of the candidate for delegates at-
large to the national conventions are
concerned and to confirm the fact that the organization slates in both
parties were elected.

On the Democratic side belated returns reversed the relative positions
of former Governors Campbell and Harmon, showing that the latter, instead of Campbell, will run second to
former Governor Cox. Figures indicate that Harmon may be a close competitor with Cox for first place on the ticket.

Tabulations from figures in the secretary of state's office for 3,049 of the 5,570 precincts of the state and representing 42 counties, with the larger
ones practically complete, show these Democratic results: Cox, 39,573; Harmon, 36,618; Campbell, 35,695; Pom-erene, 29,903, and Monnett, defeated, 17,588.

Republican tabulations for 3,544
precincts, representing 48 counties,
are: Harding, 78,330; Willis, 69,058;
Procter, 53,536; Sullivan, 52,260; Gil-
lin, 30,612; Tyler, 25,143, and Glaser, 23,867. It is believed that later returns will serve to better the showing of Harmon on the Democratic ticket and Willis on the Republican.

Cox easily led the Democratic ticket in all the populous counties, showing especial strength in Cuyahoga
Hamilton and Franklin counties.

That F. S. Monnett's strength as an anti-Wilson candidate for delegate at-
large lay chiefly with the German
population is shown by the fact that
he ran particularly strong in the South Side wards of Columbus and
in Cincinnati wards.

JUST IN TIME

Vicksburg, Mich., April 27.—With her foot tightly caught in a switch on the tracks of the G. R. and I. railroad, Miss Dale Stratton was saved from a frightful accident by the timely discovery of her plight by Andrew Johnson, the crossing tender. A passenger train was rapidly approaching.
Running down the track, Johnson
flagged the train and it stopped with-
in a few feet of where the girl was held a prisoner on the track. It was several minutes before her foot could
be released.

GERMANY HOLDS UP ITS REPLY

Said to Be Seeking Middle Ground of Compromise.

VEIL OF SECRECY LIFTED

Learned at Washington That Berlin
Feels It Can Not Submit Without Reservation to President Wilson's
Demands—Von Bernstorff Cables
Suggestions to Berlin—Conference
Held at the White House.

Washington, April 27.—Germany, it
is authoritatively stated here, feels it
can not submit without reservation to President Wilson's demands in the
submarine controversy, and is therefore delaying its answer to the American note, while seeking a middle
ground of compromise.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German
ambassador, believes a satisfactory
compromise can be reached. Secretary of State Lansing apparently does
not share the ambassador's optimism.

The position which Germany now
takes aims at deferring a categorical
reply to the president's demand that the imperial government "immediately declare and effect an abandonment
of present methods of submarine warfare," until the two governments by means of exchanges of views can
come to an understanding as to whether the reply which Germany
submits would be acceptable to the United States. Count Von Bernstorff
is understood to have cabled suggestions to Berlin which he believes
might aid in reaching this agreement.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin reported to Secretary of State Lansing
or a conference he had with Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg. The impression which this report made on
the state department was apparently
not altogether satisfactory. It was authoritatively stated that it had not
changed the situation in the slightest degree. There is so far no indication that President Wilson or Secretary
Lansing are regarding the crisis less
serious than it was the day the American note was dispatched to Berlin.
Plain intimations were given out at the state department that overcon-fidence in a satisfactory adjustment
was not justified. Optimistic press
reports stating that Ambassador Gerard had reassured the department
were emphatically denied by Secretary Lansing.

President Wilson conferred with Senator Stone, chairman of the senate foreign relation committee. What transpired at the conference was not
divulged, but the president now understands there may be considerable
further delay before Germany is ready to meet the issue. Count Von Bernstorff said that he considered it
very doubtful if a reply from Germany could come this week or early
next week. Ambassador Gerard is understood to have been informed to
the same effect by the German chancellor.

A Story of Mountain Railroad Life

By FRANK H. SPEARMAN

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends Amos Rhineland, financier, and Robert Seagrue, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagrue steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wounding the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagrue, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhineland. Spike, befriended by Helen, in his turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagrue kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhineland a race against Seagrue for right-of-way. Helen, Storm and Rhineland rescue Spike from Seagrue's men. Spike steals records to protect Rhineland, and Storm and Helen save Spike from death in the burning court house. Vein in Superstition mine pinches out. Seagrue salts it and sells it to Rhineland.

Spasmodic efforts were made to clear the opening. Men, losing their heads, rushed hither and thither, accomplishing nothing and adding to the panic that possessed everyone at the thought of the tragedy within the closed tunnel. Bidding a man to stop his useless efforts to tear away the fallen rock, she gave him directions as to what to do. "Telephone for doctors," she said hurriedly, "while I go over to the Neighbor mine for help."

Both hastened away. Helen reaching the edge of the cliff, where the aerial railway ran from the mountainside down to the valley below, stopped. It would take her fifteen precious minutes to run down the trail. Could she, by any possibility, ride down the aerial cable?

She grasped the hook of the frail aerial carriage and clinging to it with both hands, pulled the release. Like a bird on wing, Helen shot far out from the mountainside and dropping at a sharp angle down the line, sped suspended between heaven and earth. At a distance on the desert, the Shay engine of the Neighbor mine was toiling slowly along when the engineer saw the figure of a woman clinging to the aerial carriage of the Superstition mine as it shot through the air down to the valley. Breathless, he watched the wild flight, expecting every instant to see the slender creature let go, to fall, crushed, to the rock below her.

But Helen did not let go. Hanging on with a desperation born of the realization that she must save the imprisoned men, she shot across the dangerous declivity from top to bottom and without mishap, jumped in safety to the foot of the aerial and dashed away for help. She ran toward the little railroad, flagged the engine, got into the cab, and struggling for breath, apprised the crew of the accident. The engineer hurriedly started the engine back to their own mine. Forcing all the speed that he could get, and with Helen urging him to spare no effort, he made the engine bump along over the joints as it never had done before.

ARTILLERY PLAY ON THE FRENCH

German Infantry Attack Halted By Curtain of Fire.

Paris, April 27.—The only infantry attack attempted by the Germans was in the Senones sector, in Lorraine. This attempt was stopped by the French fire curtain.

Heavy artillery bombardment over much of the front and unusual activity on the part of French aviators were the distinguishing features of the day. French batteries bombarded German positions in the Dormoise valley in Champagne, and in the sectors of Hill 335, Vauquois and the Bois Cheppy, in the Argonne. The artillery on both sides was active about Avocourt, Hill 304 and Montzeville, on the western bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun sector, and to a lesser degree on the eastern bank of the river. Varangeville and Luneville, southeast of Nancy, were bombarded by a German long range gun.

A bombarding squadron of French aeroplanes dropped bombs on railway stations, steel works and other points of military advantage in the general region of Verdun, the steel works at Jœuf and Homécourt, southeast of Briey, and the railway stations at Prioulles, Confians, Pierrepont and Mezières being included among the points bombarded. At the same time another squadron was bombarding German munitions depots in the region of Roye.

He was the only guard on duty in the senate end the night Frank Holt, demented German sympathizer, exploded a bomb in the senate reception room, directly over Mr. Jones' desk. He is sixty-three and became a guard with the first Democratic congress after the Civil war.

HUSTING SCENTS A PLOT

Wisconsin Senator Says Members of Congress Have Been Deluged With Thousands of Messages to Put an Embargo on Arms Shipments.

"Government Should Follow Messages to Poisonous Source," Is the Strong Language Used By Speaker.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, April 27. — Senator Hustling, Democrat, told the Senate today that the American Embargo Conference had conducted a campaign in Wisconsin to induce him to support an embargo resolution against shipment of war munitions to Europe.

He submitted a thousand letters from Wisconsin citizens, which he said all emanated from the Chicago headquarters of this organization. Senator Hustling said that thousands of telegrams deluging Congress charging the President with seeking war with Germany, emanated from the Embargo Conference.

He declared there was "a deep laid plot to poison the minds of citizens all over the country with the thought that the President wants war, when every fact gives the lie to such an assertion."

"I think the Government should follow these messages to their poisonous source," continued Senator Hustling.

"It must be plain to everyone that if this war continues for a year or so, and if these instances continue, there can be only one end."

Senator Hustling urged a congressional inquiry to determine exactly who is responsible for the propaganda.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN ALL IRELAND

Officials Believe Case—ment Insane—Some See Grave Danger in Conditions.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, April 27.—Martial law has been declared throughout all Ireland.

Sir Edward Casement, it is reported, has expressed belief that the uprising in Ireland would be a failure on account of his capture.

His leadership, he said, was necessary to the success of the movement.

Several newspapers support the theory advanced by A. Conan Doyle a year ago that Sir Roger is insane.

Viscount Middleton attacked the government in the House of Lords today for failing to take heed of warnings regarding activity of the Sinn Feiners.

The present position of Ireland, he asserted, was one of greatest danger.

PITTSBURG IDLE ARMY NOW 28000

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Pittsburg, April 27.—It became known today that steps were taken last night through the organization of the Employers' Association of Pittsburg, to try to make the district an open labor market and to handle all questions as they affect labor.

More than one hundred manufacturing and other concerns, including some of the largest in Western Pennsylvania, were represented at the meeting.

Fifteen hundred workers were added to the unemployed of the Westinghouse companies, today, when notices were posted at the Shadyside plant of the Westinghouse Electrical & Manufacturing Company saying the shops had been closed to prevent annoyances to employees.

This practically completes the tie-up of the various factories, where a proportion of workmen in each struck for an eight-hour day.

Agents from factories in other cities are busy among the strikers, and numbers of them have already left the Turtle Creek Valley.

Strike leaders said the number of idle men and women had now reached 28,000.

"THEM PAPERS" STILL A PROBLEM

Washington, April 27.—John B. Stanchfield conferred with Counselor Polk of the State Department today, as counsel for Wolfe von Igel.

It was said the lawyer had not asked for or mentioned documents and papers taken from Von Igel by agents of the Department of Justice.

The papers still are in the possession of the State Department, none having been returned in response to the demand made by Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador.

The situation in regard to the papers was described at the State Department as unchanged.

STARTED FOR THE MEETING

Secretary of War Baker Instructs Generals Scott and Funston to Proceed to Meeting Place.

Carranza's War Chief Expected to Arrive in Juarez Tonight—Americans Leave San Antonio This Evening.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, April 27. — Secretary Baker today telegraphed Generals Scott and Funston to proceed from San Antonio to El Paso late today for the conference with General Obregon.

Officials expect General Obregon will reach Juarez tonight.

General Scott and General Funston are expected to reach El Paso late today, and the first conference may be held tomorrow.

DISTURBING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, April 27. — The conference between Generals Scott, Funston and Obregon will be held in El Paso, Juarez, or "this vicinity," according to the statement of army officials today.

This was confirmed by Mexican Consul Garcia, who said that General Obregon is coming to Juarez.

Disturbing reports were received here today from many points in northern and central Mexico regarding anti-American feeling on the part of the people.

The most serious of these reports referred to towns in Durango, and especially to Durango City, where the Americans still living there have been repeatedly warned by United States Consul Coen to leave.

As far as can be learned here, there are not more than a dozen Americans still in Durango City.

The present trouble seems to be due in part to the persistent anti-American campaign which has been carried on by the Mexican papers in the state capital.

This campaign has increased in violence since the clash at Parral between United States soldiers and Carranza troops.

"BYSTANDER"

GREAT MAHONING VALLEY SEETHING WITH AN UNREST

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Youngstown, O., April 27. — The Mahoning Valley, with its hundreds of industrial plants employing 100,000 hands, is seething with unrest among its workmen, and fears were expressed by mill owners and union leaders alike today that May 1 would bring a labor crisis in the district greater than was ever known before and might be followed by numerous strikes.

RENEWING ATTACKS

German Big Guns Keep Up an Unceasing Fire on French Lines Preparing for New Infantry Movements.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, April 27.—There are signs of increasing activity along virtually the entire battle front in the west, notably on the southern end of the line down to the Vosges. The great struggle at Verdun is being continued with little diminution in vigor, however, with the German guns almost continually in play.

The only infantry movement in the Verdun region noted in this afternoon's Paris statement was to the north of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun, where what is alluded to as "a small attack" was stopped immediately by the French artillery.

In Lorraine, the Germans are feeling out the French position.

Dispersal of a reconnoitering party which attempted to reach the French lines east of Lemesnil is reported by Paris; while north of the Aisne, German patrols were driven back with hand grenades.

Two Russian hydro-aeroplanes are reported from Athens to have raided Constantinople.

SETTLEMENT IS EXPECTED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, EIGHT O'CLOCK

From the first glint of dawn, to the rising of the full moon of a summer night.

The "cheeping" of the birds, the "pit-pit" of the summer shower, the humming of the bees, the roar of the storm, the crackling of thunder, the wail of the wind, the chirp of the crickets, and the mysterious murmurs of the night.

SYNOPSIS.

On this summer day Pan plays his pipes as the world awakes, now humming softly, now with bird-calls.

The "Sunbeams" steal over the hills to draw up the "Dew-drops," (the "diamonds" which "Night" has dropped) resting on the downy pillows of "Gossamer Webs," which are "little bits" of Night's trailing garments, torn off as she fled.

A "summer shower" ends abruptly.

At noon, Pan, in the reeds by the river, lulls the world to sleep with the "song of the bees."

Views of Others

April 25, 1916

The Fayette Co. Branch of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, convened in response to previous announcement at 2 p. m. in the Probate Judge's office, about 30 interested and enthusiastic members from different parts of the county being present, some of our heaviest tax-payers included in the number, which may speak silently, but rather powerfully. The sentiment is forming rapidly, for the construction, improvement, maintaining and repair of our public roads, some very practical suggestions are being crystallizing. There does not seem to be any selfish disposition on the part of any member to secure for his particular locality any exceptional favors. All realize the great need of a general improvement of the conditions of our county and township roads. A mutual interest seems very much in evidence. Our County Commissioners are one with us and invite the co-operation of suggestions or effort, that will lead to the most practical, efficient and economical construction of roads that it is possible to get in our county. And not only the County Commissioners, but the City Council of which we are proud to mention is willing to meet the proposed improvements at the various terminals. It does not stop there. Representative citizens of adjoining counties have caught the inspiration and are looking hopefully towards our city of seeing in the not distant future, the direct lines of communication put in the best possible condition that they may show us their appreciation of our efforts by transacting enlarged business with our various enterprises, having already proposed to meet us at the county line in some instances. All of which goes to show, that the country is awakening to the great need (for business as well as pleasure, to say nothing of the general enhancement of values that are sure to follow,) of a system of road building throughout the country, that means of transportation for the varied commercial interests may be had at the least expense of time and labor; for both are important factors, in summing up the net gain to the producer, the less of both, the cheaper the article to the consumer, hence good roads conserves the consumer as well as the producer.

This organization is a branch of the Ohio Good Roads Federation of Columbus, Ohio, and stands for any practical and conservatively economic proposition that will lead into and secure for the people such a complete and effective system of road building and maintaining that will be of incalculable value and cherished pleasure to all.

This organization invites any interested party to feel that he has a cordial invitation to attend all regular meetings which will be the last Tuesday (stock sale day) of each month, and lend your ideas and become a substantial booster for any effort that will enrich and beautify the country, enlighten the mind, add to the pleasures and create a power and higher degree of morals a more wholesome social relations among the people throughout the county.

Yours for good roads,
J. E. Mark.

There is considerable talk just now about raising a subscription fund to build a 6-foot cement walk from the cement bridge near the B. & O. depot to the Hagerty Shoe factory in Millwood, and asking the City Council to make up what may be necessary to complete the project.

It is a well known fact that many girls have refused to work in the factories because they are compelled to tramp through the mud or dust from the main part of the city to the Millwood factory section. The inability of our factories to secure the necessary labor has caused them to establish branch factories in other cities, thus taking away from Washington C. H. much needed payrolls that might be retained here.

The 1100 or 1200 feet between the cement bridge and the Millwood factories could be provided with a 6-foot wide cement pavement on the east side of the street, opposite the Willis Saw Mills, for perhaps $1200 to $1300. Some filling would be necessary.

The people of Millwood who are good customers of the business houses located in the main part of town, are also deserving of some consideration by our citizens.

Such a walk as the one proposed would materially benefit Millwood real estate values and make Mill-

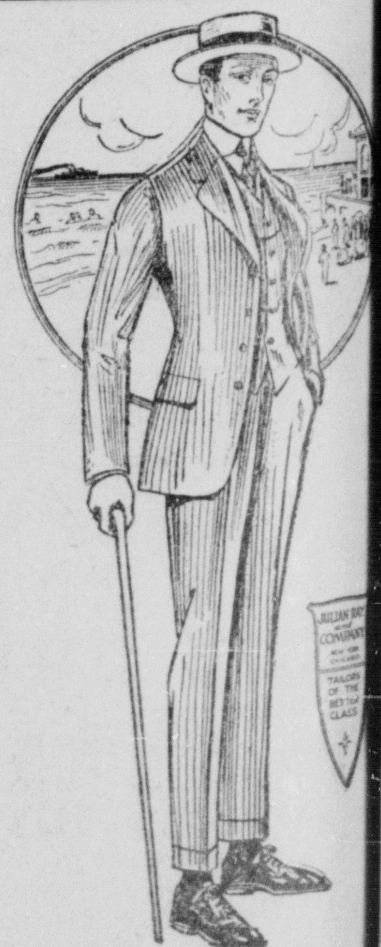

wood a much more desirable locality in which to live.

Such improvements as this really worth while and are permanent benefits alike to the community and financial worth of our people and the city.

Hitchcock and Dalbey, the estate men, have been looking the project and report a strong sentiment in favor of the construction of the proposed pavement.

The Tuesday Primary

Tuesday's primary election demonstrated that Ohio's present primary plan is badly in need of a general remodeling.

The meagre vote cast in the state generally, outside of some of the larger cities where special issues served to lure the voter from his home to the polling place, is proof that the people are not inclined to avail themselves of the "priceless privilege" which the primary laws give them.

The consensus of opinion seems to be that there are entirely too many primary elections given to the voters. If all the primary elections could be grouped and held on one day, if all preliminary party voting could be done at one time, the weight of opinion seems to be, there would be a marked increase in interest and voting.

As Tuesday's election story tells it there was something like a half million dollars of the people's money spent for about two hundred thousand votes. Roughly speaking, every vote cast cost the people about two dollars and a half to get in the ballot box, counted and recorded.

As to state wide results the most prominent features are the fact that Governor Willis and Senator Pomerene were decidedly behind in the balloting, indicating that, in their respective parties, there is a decided opposition among the voters. While Senator Harding led all delegate candidates in his party primary, Senator Pomerene ran last among his party delegates. Governor Willis did not receive quite such a set back at the hands of his party voters as did Senator Pomerene but the vote he received was a poor second to that of Senator Harding.

The Roads Federation

The Fayette County Good Roads Federation is going along with its work in a methodical, business like, yet determined way, which gives promise of real results.

Several matters of importance were taken up and dealt with in an understanding and understandable manner at the Tuesday meeting. Among the most important are the several "out links" connecting the good streets of the city with the good road sections of the county which begin at a distance of a few miles from the city.

The federation seems to be going along deliberately and not undertaking to map out a program of work so enormous as to be impossible of performance and interfering with the work of the duly constituted authorities.

The federation is also showing excellent good judgment in its very evident determination to co-operate with all other available working forces in the county rather than in antagonism to or so independent of those forces as to bring about confusion and disorder so fatal to accomplishment.

One thing evidently lacking is the co-operation of local business men. Washington business men should not fail to realize that good roads are as important to them as they are to the rural residents. It is not the voting of money that counts so much as the real actual intelligent work. Everybody should get in this game. Nobody can afford to stay out of it.

It makes little difference now who organized the federation. The main point is, it seems to be in excellent hands locally and in a fair way to do a world of good.

It is the first nucleus of a real working force without which nothing much can be accomplished.

The Horse Show

The horse show and horse sale for nineteen sixteen is now one of the events of the past.

Again the men who make these annual events possible in Washington are entitled to the thanks of the people of the community and of horse lovers and horse buyers all over this section of the country.

These events bring a throng of visitors to the city, visitors who observe and appreciate, visitors who travel a great deal and meet a great many people. It is worth something to the community to have the good will and the good opinion of the folks who come to Washington each year to see and to buy.

Fayette county is known now far and wide as the home of good horses—the Lexington of Ohio. Even men who are not directly interested in horses hear of Washington and remember what the enthusiastic friends we have made say about us and, unconsciously to men even in other lines of business, Washington and Fayette county slips into the mental file case for ready reference any time necessity or desire demands the name of a real live, good city and county.

In short the horse show and horse sale has helped to put the city and county very decidedly on the map.

On the other hand, these events have provided a Mecca for those who love horses and for those who deal in horses, to which they may make their annual pilgrimage.

Yes, the horse show and sale are a good thing for visitors and the community. Success to them.

GASOLINE.

I've had in mind to write a song
Of praise to gasoline
To laud its worth throughout the earth
How useful it has been!
But Oh, I should have sung my song
At that departed time
When joy was high and I could buy
A gallon for a dime.

I could have sung its praises then,
Sincerely, had I tried,
Its labors fine, in many a line
I could have glorified.
I should have hailed that precious stuff
In deathless verse and rhyme
When I could get (Oh vain regret!)
A gallon for a dime.

Were I to sing of gasoline
Considering its rate
I fear today, my epic lay
Would be a song of hate.
At nineteen cents I find no thrill
Ecstatic or sublime,
I've just one thought, 'Tis once I bought
A gallon for a dime.

Conditions Under Which Submarines May Attack Merchantmen Are Set Forth—Orders From Belligerent Government to Conduct Aggressive Operations Would Stamp Merchant Vessel as Warship.

Washington, April 27.—By direction of President Wilson, the attitude of the United States toward armed merchantmen in neutral ports and on the high seas is defined in a statement which has just been made public.

The feature of the statement is its direct bearing on the submarine issue with Germany. It takes the position that a belligerent is not justified in presuming that an armed merchantmen encountered on the high seas is of a warlike character until conclusive evidence has shown it to be. The presence of armament on the ship is not considered enough and in absence of conclusive evidence to the contrary, the belligerent, the United States contends, must act on the assumption that the armed merchantman is of a peaceful character. Only one means is open to a belligerent to conclusively prove the warlike character of an armed merchantman, that is by visit and search.

But the statement points out that warships under international law must give merchant ships an opportunity to surrender or to submit to visit and search before attempting to seize them by force. If the merchantman flees or resists the warship may exercise force to compel surrender.

In view of the German charge that British armed merchantmen are under admiralty orders to resist capture in all circumstances, the position defined by the United States in this respect is regarded as particularly important. Secretary Lansing has made inquiry of the British government whether the admiralty orders make a resistance compulsory. The inquiry to Great Britain was sent about ten days ago. No reply has yet been received.

THE FIGHT

(By American Press)

El Paso, Tex., April 27.—News of two battles between American troops and Villa bandits in Mexico reached the border in official advices from General John J. Pershing, commanding the American forces.

One dispatch gave the brief details of an engagement on April 26 between American forces under Colonel Erwin, Seventh cavalry, and a band of Villistas at Coconarcho, near Guerrero. Four Mexicans were wounded and captured in this battle, the rest of the band escaping.

The other message told of Colonel George A. Dodd and his American cavalry detachment meeting and defeating a band of 260 Villistas in the mountains of western Chihuahua on April 22. The Americans killed six and wounded nineteen of the band, losing in return two men killed and three wounded. As Villa himself has recently been reported alive in western Chihuahua, south of Temochile, there is an inclination to believe that he may have been in the vicinity of the band.

SHOOTING TO KILL CHARGE FILED TODAY

Addie Bay-Jones to Face Charge Which Will Probably Land Her in Ohio Penitentiary or State Reformatory.

An indictment charging Addie Bay Jones with shooting with intent to kill Harry (Monk) Sammons on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 25th, was filed before Mayor Oster, Thursday morning, by Chief of Police D. L. Moore, and it was expected that the woman would be given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Oster late Thursday afternoon.

Should Sammons die of the wounds inflicted by the woman, a charge of manslaughter will be placed against her, but conviction upon either charge means a term in state prison, either the penitentiary or state reformatory.

The woman will be held to the grand jury, probably without bond, and the grand jury will take up the charge against her when that body of investigators assembles for duty Monday morning of next week.

Sammons' condition is none too hopeful, and the physicians regard his chances of recovery or death as about equally divided, the rusty gun and verdigris covered ball forming a dangerous combination as a blood poison producer.

At the present time Sammons is very restless and suffers greatly. The ball has not been located.

Pleads Not Guilty.

At 3:40 Thursday afternoon the woman was arraigned, waived the reading of the affidavit and entered a plea of not guilty. Her bond was fixed at $500, and was remanded back to jail to await action of the grand jury. She was represented by Lee Rankin.

OSCAR ORR TO SUCCEED SHANK

Announcement has been made that Mr. Oscar Orr, of Columbus, formerly the Wire Chief of the local Home Telephone Company, will succeed Mr. M. B. Shank as manager of the system in this city and county.

and Mr. Orr arrived from Columbus Thursday morning to familiarize himself with the work before Mr. Shank leaves the first of the coming month.

For several years Mr. Orr, who is a brother to Wilbur Orr, of this city, has been in Columbus, where he has been prominently associated with the Ohio State Telephone Company. He understands the telephone business thoroughly and is regarded as the "right man for the right place" to succeed Mr. Shank in this city.

Mr. Orr's great circle of friends in this city and county will be pleased to learn of his merited promotion.

PLAN REBUILDING OF FARM LINES

BONDING COMPANY AT WORK ON JEFF. PIKE

Much of the old curbing must be removed and new curb constructed, and in some instances where the curb built by Parrish & Bales would otherwise do for the job, it is said to be out of line as much as four inches, so that most of the curbing will be removed entirely.

The road is closed at the present time, and it is understood the commissioners will keep an eye on the progress made with a view to not allowing it to drag along.

LAYING FOUNDATION FOR ASPHALT PAVING

The Andrews Asphalt Company, who have the contract for paving Hinde street, is now engaged in laying the concrete base for the new paving, and has a large part of the foundation constructed.

If the weather permits the entire foundation will be finished this week, and as soon as it becomes solid and "cured" the sand and asphalt will be applied. It is expected that traffic will be passing over the street within the next three weeks.

On South Main street the work of excavating has not been completed and the curb has not yet been reset. It is expected that the street will be ready for the concrete foundation next week.

Front Corsets Laced

Miss Maude Ball Says:

"There are many slender-figured women who are under the impression that they need not pay attention to their corset; that any corset is good enough for them. That they are mistaken is manifested by the fact that so many women who are slender do not wear the correct corset for their figure, and as a result distinctiveness and gracefulness is lost. There is always room for improvement."

MISS BALL has demonstrated her ability as a corsetiere. She has accomplished wonders for many of our customers.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club celebrated the three hundredth anniversary of Shakespeare's birth at the First Baptist church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, vice-president, welcomed, in her usual graceful way, the visiting clubs invited to join in the tribute to the noted bard.

She then introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Geoffrey Morgan, graduate in English of Leland Stanford University and head of the department of Education of Ohio University, Athens.

Prof. Morgan, always an intensely interesting speaker, took up Mrs. Carpenter's reference to the recently agitated "Bacon Theory" and briefly, but convincingly, refuted the chief arguments of the "Pro-Baconites."

Two of his strongest arguments were that the writings which bear Bacon's own signature do not come up to the standard of Shakespeare and that it would be an absolute impossibility for one man to have written the voluminous compositions which have been published by both of these writers.

The speaker then spoke of the universality of Shakespeare's genius—his gifts in presenting humor, heroism, and tragedy and, above all, his poetic power.

Prof. Morgan presented scenes from "Twelfth Night," "Mid Summer Night's Dream," "Henry the Fifth," "Romeo and Juliet," "King Lear" and Hamlet, conclusively proving to readers his wonderful grasp of Shakespearean literature and illustrating in a most entertaining way the qualities which he ascribed to the great "Literary Alchemist."

The progressiveness of the Browning Club was emphatically demonstrated anew in the presentation of a program of such literary merit at a time when the subject is of dominant interest.

This is the second entertainment of this character presented during this club year, under the presidency of Mrs. P. J. Henness.

The Leap Year Dance given by the Pythian Sisters for charity Wednesday night proved a decided success, providing an evening of the utmost pleasure and gaiety and reflecting credit galore upon the order as able entertainers.

Fifty two couples formed in a pretty grand march, in which many dainty evening gown shimmered with rainbow tints. Miss Emma Wilson and Mr. Elden Evans led the march.

and candles burning brightly in crystal tapers.

Relatives and friends in this city have received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Irma Jeanette Bingenheimer to Mr. Lawrence Waldo Ustick, on Tuesday, the twenty-fifth of April, one thousand, nine hundred and sixteen, Niagara Falls, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Ustick will be at home after the 1st of June at three hundred and sixty Crescent Avenue, Buffalo, New York.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. G. M. Ustick and has been for some years with the Rogers and Brown Steel and Iron Co., Buffalo, New York.

The Presbyterian Guild Kensington of Wednesday afternoon proved a delightful affair at the home of Mrs. David H. Barchet. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames John A. Paul, Albert McCoy, D. H. C. Bowmen, Mary Millikan, Frank A. Chaffin, W. B. Chandler.

Mrs. Barchet's son, Ira, added to the pleasure of the afternoon in well played piano numbers.

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins is entertaining today the members of the financial committee of the Chillicothe Presbyterial, Miss Anna Welsh, treasurer, Mrs. Shields, president, of Hillsboro; Miss Winifred Caldwell, S. Solon; Miss Dorothy Steele, Chillicothe; Mrs. A. S. Kaye, retiring president, of Frankfort. Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton, retiring secretary, was also a luncheon guest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Cline gave a delightful little dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Shank and son Robert, who are leaving the first of the week for their new home in Dayton. The additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jared Adams, Miss Mary Cline and little Elizabeth Cline.

Jonquils and greenery formed pretty decorations.

Fifteen girls of Miss Cecil Reeder's Sunday school class greatly enjoyed a picnic supper in the basement dining room of Grace M. E. church, Wednesday night.

GOOD MOVE

(By American Press)

Chicago, April 27.—Representatives
of railroads in the United States and
the chief executives of each of the
four brotherhoods of railway employees which are threatening a general strike, met today in a preliminary conference in the offices of the General Managers' association here to
arrange for conferences between the
employees' committee and a conference committee of the railroads.

The ultimatum of the employees demanding a written reply to the re-
vision of the schedules handed the rail-
roads several weeks ago expires Saturday. However, it is stated by officials of the General Managers' association that practically every railway
in the country has already replied to those demands. Refusal of the demands of the employees has been universal with the railroads, it is said.
Neither side has shown any disposition to arbitrate.

the case of Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers,
charged with the murder of her two

Her defense was that she was tempo-

Rogers, the father of the children,
had not divorced the woman then his
wife. Rogers has since been divorced

ANOTHER PUNCTURE

Washington, April 27.—Numerous
reports connecting Senator Harding's
name with the presidential nomination drew from the senator a statement swatting his boom as hard as
friends know he would not wish to be

Troop Transports.

According to Secret Code Cable-
gram Received in New York.
Greater Part of the City Reported
Held by the Rebels—Another Zeppelin Raid On English Coast.

Amsterdam, April 27.—German sub-
marines, whose sole task is to destroy every troop transport destined
for Ireland to quell the Dublin revolt,
are reported to be patrolling the Irish
sea and the Atlantic waters to the
west and south of Ireland.

It became known here that the visit
which Sir Roger Casement paid to the Irish coast on the night of April
21, and which resulted in his arrest
by the British, and the sinking of the German auxiliary with which he had come, was not the first visit the famous Irish nobleman paid to his native
shore since he has been in Germany.
Despite the fact that there was a
price of $25,000 on his head, Sir
Roger, it is reported, had previously
made several daring trips to the Irish
coast, all of which were successful.

has close commercial and literary
German newspapers and a consider-
able number of the leading politicians
are convinced that Germany will not
go so far as to permit a diplomatic
rupture with America. They declare
that the Kaiser will make a great effort to prevent a break. German public opinion, which at the beginning
was furious against America, is said
to have become considerably calmer,
and no more warlike talk is heard on

TROOPS CONTROL

(By American Press)

London, April 27.—British regulars
from Belfast and England are now in Dublin and have recaptured from the
revolutionary faction several important centers which the members of the Sinn Fein party and their adherents
had occupied. These include St.
Stephen's Green and Liberty hall.
The number of insurgents killed is
placed at 11.

(By American Press)

New York, April 27.—A secret code
cablegram just received here by circles sympathizing with the Sinn Fein,
the organization which is leading the
rebellion in Dublin, makes the following assertion: "Violent fighting con-
of the city is firmly held by the
rebels."

Another cipher message repeated
the statements made Tuesday that Lord Wimborne, lord lieutenant of Ireland, his under-secretary, Mr.
Nathan, General Friend, commander

land, and his whole staff, as well as
several hundred British soldiers, are
prisoners in the hands of the rebels.
They are held, it is stated, as host-
ages for Sir Roger Casement. The
same message declares that uprising
have broken out in other parts of Ireland and is spreading through all the
four provinces.

PARALYZED

(By American Press)

Pittsburgh, April 27.—With approximately 30,000 employees on a strike,
every Westinghouse plant located in
the Turtle Creek valley was closed
down for an indefinite period. Clashes
between the strikers and the guards
were frequent in the strike zone. In
many instances guards were attacked,
but no serious injuries resulted.

The list of persons now on strike
throughout the Pittsburgh district approaches 120,000. Of this number 54,
000 are employees of the allied Westinghouse interests and the Pittsburgh
Coal company. The remainder are scattered among industrial plants in

PRIMARY ECHOES

Returns Change Relative Posi-

of the presidential primaries served
to change the early returns only in so
far as the relative positions of several of the candidate for delegates-at-
large to the national conventions are
concerned and to confirm the fact
that the organization slates in both
parties were elected.

On the Democratic side belated returns reversed the relative positions
of former Governors Campbell and Harmon, showing that the latter, in-
former Governor Cox. Figures indicate that Harmon may be a close competitor with Cox for first place on
the ticket.

Tabulations from figures in the secretary of state's office for 3,049 of the 5,570 precincts of the state and representing 42 counties, with the larger
ones practically complete, show these Democratic results: Cox, 39,573; Har-
mon, 36,618; Campbell, 35,695; Pom-
erene, 29,903, and Monnett, defeated, 17,588.

Republican tabulations for 3,544
precincts, representing 48 counties,
are: Harding, 78,330; Willis, 69,058;
Procter, 53,536; Sullivan, 52,260; Gil-
fin, 39,612; Tyler, 25,143; and Glaser, 23,867. It is believed that later returns will serve to better the showing of Harmon on the Democratic
ticket and Willis on the Republican.

Cox easily led the Democratic tick-
et in all the populous counties, showing especial strength in Cuyahoga
Hamilton and Franklin counties.

That F. S. Monnett's strength as an
anti-Wilson candidate for delegate-at-
population is shown by the fact that
he ran particularly strong in the South Side wards of Columbus and
in Cincinnati wards.

Vicksburg, Mich., April 27.—With
her foot tightly caught in a switch
on the tracks of the G. R. and I. railroad,
Miss Dale Stratton was saved from a
frightful accident by the timely discovery of her plight by Andrew John-
son, the crossing tender. A passenger train was rapidly approaching.
flagged the train and it stopped with-
in a few feet of where the girl was
several minutes before her foot could
be released.

Ground of Compromise.

Feels It Can Not Submit Without Reservation to President Wilson's
Demands—Von Bernstorff Cables
Suggestions to Berlin—Conference
Held at the White House.

Washington, April 27.—Germany, it
is authoritatively stated here, feels it
can not submit without reservation to President Wilson's demands in the
submarine controversy, and is therefore delaying its answer to the American note, while seeking a middle
ground of compromise.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German
ambassador, believes a satisfactory
compromise can be reached. Secretary of State Lansing apparently does
not share the ambassador's optimism.

takes aims at deferring a categorical
reply to the president's demand that the imperial government "immediately declare and effect an abandonment
of present methods of submarine warfare," until the two governments by
means of exchanges of views can
come to an understanding as to
whether the reply which Germany
United States. Count Von Bernstorff
is understood to have cabled suggestions to Berlin which he believes
might aid in reaching this agreement.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin reported to Secretary of State Lansing
or a conference he had with Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg. The impression which this report made on
the state department was apparently
not altogether satisfactory. It was
authoritatively stated that it had not
changed the situation in the slightest
degree. There is so far no indication
that President Wilson or Secretary
Lansing are regarding the crisis less
serious than it was the day the American note was dispatched to Berlin.
Plain intimations were given out at the state department that overconfi-dence in a satisfactory adjustment
was not justified. Optimistic press
reports stating that Ambassador Ger-
ard had reassured the department
were emphatically denied by Secretary Lansing.

President Wilson conferred with Senator Stone, chairman of the senate foreign relation committee. What
transpired at the conference was not
divulged, but the president now understands there may be considerable
further delay before Germany is
ready to meet the issue. Count Von Bernstorff said that he considered it
very doubtful if a reply from Ger-
many could come this week or early
next week. Ambassador Gerard is understood to have been informed to
the same effect by the German chancellor.

A Story of Mountain Railroad Life

By FRANK H. SPEARMAN

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends Amos Rhineland, financier, and Robert Seagru, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagru steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wounding the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagru, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhineland. Spike, befriended by Helen, in his turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagru kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhineland a race against Seagru for right-of-way. Helen, Storm and Rhineland rescue Spike from Seagru's men. Spike steals records to protect Rhineland, and Storm and Helen save Spike from death in the burning court house. Vein in Superstition mine pinches out. Seagru salts it and sells it to Rhineland.

Spasmodic efforts were made to clear the opening. Men, losing their heads, rushed hither and thither, accomplishing nothing and adding to the panic that possessed everyone at the thought of the tragedy within the closed tunnel. Bidding a man to stop his useless efforts to tear away the fallen rock, she gave him directions as to what to do. "Telephone for doctors," she said hurriedly, "while I go over to the Neighbor mine for help."

Both hastened away. Helen, reaching the edge of the cliff, where the aerial railway ran from the mountainside down to the valley below, stopped. It would take her fifteen precious minutes to run down the trail. Could she, by any possibility, ride down the aerial cable?

She grasped the hook of the frail aerial carriage and clinging to it with both hands, pulled the release. Like a bird on wing, Helen shot far out from the mountainside and dropping at a sharp angle down the line, sped suspended between heaven and earth.

At a distance on the desert, the Shay engine of the Neighbor mine was toiling slowly along when the engineer saw the figure of a woman clinging to the aerial carriage of the Superstition mine as it shot through the air down to the valley. Breathless, he watched the wild flight, expecting every instant to see the slender creature let go, to fall, crushed, to the rock below her.

But Helen did not let go. Hanging on with a desperation born of the realization that she must save the imprisoned men, she shot across the dangerous declivity from top to bottom and without mishap, jumped in safety to the foot of the aerial and dashed away for help. She ran toward the little railroad, flagged the engine, got into the cab, and struggling for breath, apprised the crew of the accident. The engineer hurriedly started the engine back to their own mine. Forcing all the speed that he could get, and with Helen urging him to spare no effort, he made the engine bump along over the joints as it never had done before.

German Infantry Attack Halted By Curtain of Fire.

Paris, April 27.—The only infantry attack attempted by the Germans was in the Senones sector, in Lorraine. This attempt was stopped by the French fire curtain.

Heavy artillery bombardment over much of the front and unusual activity on the part of French aviators were the distinguishing features of the day. French batteries bombarded German positions in the Dormoise valley in Champagne, and in the sectors of Hill 335, Vauquois and the Bois Cheppy, in the Argonne. The artillery on both sides was active about Avocourt, Hill 304 and Montzeville, on the western bank of the Meuse, in the Verdun sector, and to a lesser degree on the eastern bank of the river. Varangeville and Luneville, southeast of Nancy, were bombarded by a German long range gun.

A bombarding squadron of French aeroplanes dropped bombs on railway stations, steel works and other points of military advantage in the general region of Verdun, the steel works at Jœuf and Homme-court, southeast of Briey, and the railway stations at Prieulles, Conflans, Pierrepont and Mezieres being included among the points bombarded. At the same time another squadron was bombarding German munitions depots in the region of Roye.

CREW CAPTURED

(Associated Press Cable)

Berlin, April 27.—The German naval forces which bombarded Lowestoft sank the steamer King Stephen and captured her crew. It was officially announced here. This is the same steamer that refused to rescue the crew of the Zeppelin L-17, which dropped into the North sea. It was also announced that a destroyer and another scout boat aside from the King Stephen were sunk.

OLDEST CAPITOL GUARD

Frank G. Jones is the oldest guard at the United States Capitol. The only man now in congress who was sitting in the national assembly when Mr. Jones donned the uniform of a capitol guard forty years ago is "Uncle Joe" Cannon. It was Mr. Jones who lowered the flag over the capitol to half mast at the assassination of President Garfield and twenty years later he had the same sad task to perform after the assassination of President McKinley. He was the only guard on duty in the senate end the night Frank Holt, demented German sympathizer, exploded a bomb in the senate reception room, directly over Mr. Jones' desk. He is sixty-three and became a guard with the first Democratic congress after the Civil war.

ZEPPELIN RAID

(By American Press)

London, April 27.—Zeppelins made their third raid last night on the English coast within three days. German airships are reported to have appeared over Kent about 10:30 last night, but on account of a mist blanketing the east coast, it is believed that they withdrew without dropping many bombs.
